

Our Hope

By Spencer Macleod

“Believing in what we do not see will result in seeing what we have believed”
—Unknown

Our hope is what is hidden
Not seen with the human eye
Is promised to the forgiven
From a God who does not lie
“We hope for what we do not see”
This gives us hope in itself
The present cannot dictate
What lies beyond our death.
So we will not grow weary
When all we had was lost
Our treasure cannot be worked for
Only Jesus paid its cost.
So when vanity and emptiness
Overwhelm us with despair
We praise God for His promises
With hands raised in the air.

“Set your hope fully on the grace to be given to you when Jesus Christ is revealed.”
—1 Peter 1:21
